ANNOUNCEMENT

World Superhero Awards 2024-2025

When people talk about superheroes, they often think of a character in a comic strip or cartoon with superhuman powers, fighting evil or crime. But many don't realize that real superheroes live among us, working tirelessly to save and improve our world.

For the past 20 years, one man has pondered why we haven't formally recognized the World Superheroes in our universe. Suresh Joachim, Canada's #1 Guinness World Record holder with over 70 world records achieved in two decades, has dedicated his life to alleviating poverty, disease, and war. In 2017-2018, he ran across six continents, covering 72 countries as part of the World Peace Marathon, raising awareness for the causes of No Poverty, No Disease, and No War.

This year marks the inaugural World Superhero Awards, honoring extraordinary individuals in 12 categories across the globe. A World Superhero is someone who embodies superhuman perseverance and has achieved excellence in their field.
